Read the following passage carefully and choose the best answer to each question out of the four given alternatives.

New Type RC

PARAGRAPH 1 There are basically three choices available to you when trying to influence people. The first is to ignore people and simply hope they will act in your best interest. You probably will agree that this is not a very practical option, since the results can be neither effective nor predictable. By ignoring other people, you are giving up any hope of influencing them and thus are surrendering yourself to the whims of fate. In effect, you are saying to the world, "I will leave you alone and, in return, I want you to do what I want", a naive and unrealistic expectation.

PARAGRAPH 2 The second option is to use coercion and force to compel others to act in the specific way desire. The use of threats and intimidation may produce results, at least in the short term. Fear-inducing tactics, however, never bring out the best in the people, since people themselves must be the driving force behind their motivation if they are to put their hearts and souls into what they are doing. Fear forces people to operate in a survival mode. They may follow your instructions and orders to the letter, but seldom will they contribute any real energy or enthusiasm to their efforts.

Reading Section

PARAGRAPH 3 The third option is to persuade people to do what you want them to do simply because they really want to. People will do what you want them to do willingly in direct proportion to how they see their self-interest being served. In other words, you must convince people that they will receive real benefits and rewards if they follow the path you are suggesting. These benefits must be something the other party understands and inherently wants, for whatever reason. In effect, you are offering a reward that is valued by others in exchange for a reward that is valued by you. The highest reward you can offer people is to provide them with opportunities to maximize their full potential.

6. By ignoring people and hoping they will act in our best interest, we are

- (a) adopting a practical and fruitful approach
- (b) harming our self-interest (c) stifling our personality

Reading Solutions

1. Ans.(a) Sol. D, C and B in that order is the writer commenting about a whole section of his book. That it does not fit into any category – sentence A – has hardly any relation to the other three sentences. In D the beginning of the paragraph is rather abrupt but there is no other sentence that can begin this paragraph.

2. Ans.(c) Sol. The other three sentences follow the theme of the geography of Africa – the origin of humankind cannot be linked to this theme. If you try to arrange the other sentences in a sequence it could be BDA.

3. Ans.(c) Sol. B, A and D in that order talks about the development of environmental aesthetics – its roots in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries – the emergence of the concepts of disinterestedness and the picturesque in these centuries and how these concepts still influence... C does not fit into this theme in any way – there is no place for “thus.”

4. Ans.(b) Sol. Sentence B is the most concise and grammatically correct sentence among the given sentences. All other Sentences are wordy and have different, faulty structures. In sentence E, pronoun ‘these’ is incorrect.

5. Ans.(d) Sol. Sentence D is the most concise and grammatically correct sentence among the given sentences. All other Sentences are wordy.

6. Ans.(d) Sol. being unrealistic and simple

7. Ans.(c) Sol. only limited and short-term results
